

A diagram showing a bolted joint. A bolt is inserted through a hole in a rectangular block. A split pin (cotter pin) is inserted through the end of the bolt and a hole in the block, securing the bolt in place.

E

4.