The diagram illustrates the first step of the assembly process. It shows a main assembly area with components labeled B01-200, B02-10, Z01-240R, Z01-240L, and FTx-001978. Two circular callouts provide detailed views of the screw-in process for the Z01-240R and Z01-240L components. A warning callout shows a B02-10 bushing being correctly inserted into a hole, marked with an exclamation point.
